

From: Larry Belkin
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 11/17/01 11:39pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Anything less than a settlement requiring the separation of the Operating System from the Software Division is unenforceable; Microsoft will continue its monopolistic practices. If we really want other Operating Systems and other software developers to have a fighting chance, please require that Microsoft be divided into to separate companies: 1. Windows Operating System; 2. Microsoft Software Co.
Thank you.